Mountain West Research Summit Submission Guidelines
May 9th, 2025

We welcome abstract or presentation summaries for the following tracks:

Clinical Research: Including but not limited to
- New/innovative interventions or assessment strategies
- Service delivery or policy factors in healthcare/ health professions
- Case studies or case series

Health Professions Education Scholarship/Research: Including but not limited to

- Teaching Pedagogies
- Simulation and Virtual Reality in Health Professions Education
- Student outcomes
- Trends in Health Professions Education

Basic Science: Including but not limited to
- Research with various cell lines
- Biomechanics
- Pre-clinical models
- Development of novel software for basic science data analysis
- New drug development/Novel Use

We consider research to be any projects involving scholarly work, educational development, exploratory work, and/or hypothesis testing.

Accepted abstracts will be asked to be made into posters (or presentations) to be delivered at the symposium and will also be available on the Noorda COM website. A selection of the top-rated posters will be published in the Intermountain Journal of Translational Medicine.

Important Dates:

Abstract Submission Deadline: March 10th, 2025

Acceptance Notification: mid-April, 2025